EXPECTATIONS ON THE GROUND REFLECTIONS

04-18-2018

Finally at the airport and waiting for our flight to Jamaica -

It's been VERY hectic in the last few days - I thought I was not going to make it on this cultural exchange -

My parents have had some 5000 many hiccups, I am the only ~~the~~ care taker - I had to leave a lot of things tied up & set up

80 yrs old

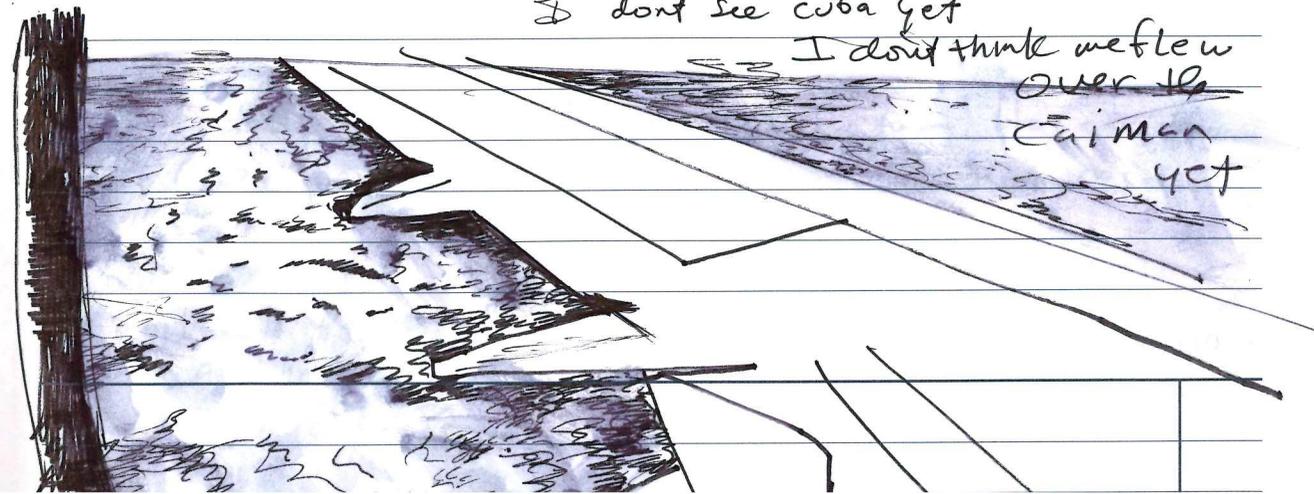

81 yrs old.

I LOVE Flying over the Caribbean

⑥ 10,000 ft you can see a lot
I don't see Cuba yet

I don't think we flew over the Caribbean
yet

AHORA SI!

Volando over el verde cayman

Santa Clara ? Holguin ? Varadero ? Trinidad ?
Ciego de Avila ? El Centro de la isla ?

Oriente ? o Occidente

Ahora si se ve claro, no more clouds covering the green patches of land

La Isla Grande, la soberana, de pie, ~~solamente~~ standing tall, but not isolated, surrounded by folks green, & brown, surrounded by respect & admiration just flying over a city - , no mountains in sight so it must be the center of the island.

VIA AZUL

I see that main road that cuts across the island

Have ~~been~~ traveled many times from Habana to STGO and back on VIAZUL - on that road.

Cuba

Cubita La Bella
Cuba que linda es Cuba, el que la defiende la quiere más

I see the island hidden within the clouds

JAMAICA

I see the land, earth reaching into the sea

I see peaks mountains

It's very hazy - 8 am - finally WE ARE HERE 😊

out from under the clutches - of Big NA

ON a clear morning what makes the terrain bumpy like that

Green

National heroes greeted us at the airport

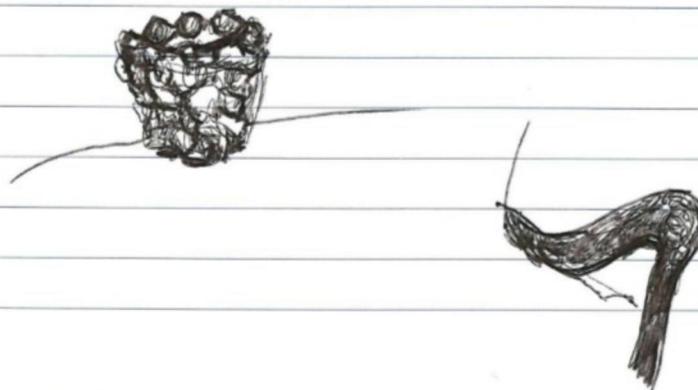

We went straight to Edna Harley from the airport a multidisciplinary Artschool - The gallery is called The Cage and Carol will be curating the exhibit a wall of rocks prevents the water from ever covering the road

We got to the house at about 3:30 PM a beautiful house in the elite "Elite neighborhood" described Clark, our neighborhood -

Houses in that neighborhood built already existed in the 70's when you are the descendant of slave owners.....

I have realized how much I can do in an 8 hour day if I was not working.....

5 acres of land
