About Diaspora Vibe Cultural Arts Incubator, Inc.

Diaspora Vibe Cultural Arts Incubator, Inc. (DVCAI) is a Miami-based 501(c)3 organization. The mission of DVCAI is to promote, nurture and cultivate the vision and diverse talent of emerging artists from the Caribbean and Latin Diaspora through our exhibition programs, artist-in-residence programs, international exchange programs and educational and outreach activities that celebrate Miami-Dade's rich cultural and social fabric. For more information, please visit www.dvcai.org and follow our activities at <https://www.givemiamiday.org/DVCAI> <https://twitter.com/DiasporaVibe>, <https://www.instagram.com/dvcai/>.

Thank you

DVCAI programs are made possible with the support of the Miami-Dade County Department of Cultural Affairs and the Cultural Affairs Council, the Miami-Dade County Mayor and Board of County Commissioners. DVCAI's work is sponsored in part by the State of Florida, Department of State, Division of Arts and Culture, and the Florida Council on Arts and Culture, The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation, The Ford Foundation, The Institute of Museum and Library Services (IMLS), The Andy Warhol Foundation for the Visual Arts, The Miami Foundation, The Jorge M. Pérez Family Foundation at The Miami Foundation, South Arts, The John S. and James L. Knight Foundation, National Performance Network (NPN), The Rhythm Foundation, Greater Miami Convention and Visitors Bureau, GMCVB Art of Black Miami, and the Betsy Hotel.
